

Fiske & Company Director, Peter Gampel, Speaks at Federal Bar Association on Understanding Why Expert Witnesses Can Substantially Disagree on Lost Profits/Business Valuation

PLANTATION, FL – Peter Gampel, ABV/CFF, ASA, CA, CBV, Director in the Business Valuation, Forensic Accounting and Litigation Services Practice of Fiske & Company, spoke at The Federal Bar Association Broward County Chapter meeting. Fiske & Company is one of South Florida's leading CPA firms.

Gampel and Michael Elkin, CPA, two highly regarded and respected experts in the field of forensic valuation, discussed several of the key variables experts use in determining lost business value/lost profits and how their application can result in major differences. The title of the presentation was “Understanding Why Expert Witnesses Can Substantially Disagree on Lost Profits Damages Business Valuation Models When the Underlying Data is the Same.”

Gampel has more than 28 years of experience in the industry and brings a wealth of knowledge in these specialized fields. He has advised many business owners and attorneys over the years, and has spent a considerable portion of time with a Big "5" accounting firm where he was a principal in charge of the Florida Valuation Practice.

Gampel attended McGill University, where he earned his Bachelor of Commerce in Accounting and Finance as well as his post graduate degree in Public Accountancy. He is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants (FICPA), and National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA).

Established in 1972, Fiske & Company is one of South Florida's leading CPA firms, offering accounting and consulting services to individuals and businesses, as well as to legal and financial professionals seeking expert advice and support on behalf of their respective clients. In addition to tax, audit and accounting, the firm focuses its practice on business valuation, litigation support and forensic accounting. Visit their Web site at www.fiskeco.com

Media Contact:

Don Silver

donsil@boardroompr.com

954.370.8999